

Vyr & Mey

“Bubbles”

Episode 01

Version 01 – 2/12/2005

Mey is running quickly over some hills in the distance.

His face and message on the backpack are blurred by the force of the wind. Suddenly the effect stops.

Mey’s feet are running in the air. And then we see that he is inside a soap bubble.

When the bubble pops we see that Vyr, giggling, made the bubble.

A battle then begins to see who makes the biggest soap bubble or more bubbles linked together.

In this phase of linked bubbles some shapes appear, such as monsters.

Vyr makes a menacing monster-bubble that wants to attack Mey.

Mey is afraid, but soon has an idea.

The new bubbles produced come out very small and quickly fall to the ground.

The bubbles behave like marbles and roll underneath Vyr’s foot, who is swept off his feet and falls backwards. Rounding the scene off, the monster-bubble collapses above Vyr and leaves him soaking wet.

Lettering: “The biggest isn’t always the strongest”
