

Vyr & Mey

“Leaves”

Episode 08

Version 01 – 6/12/2005

Mey is running and suddenly stops, frightened.

Vyr is in front of a tree, holding a katana (Japanese martial arts sword) and wearing a headband.

Mey shows off, forming an attacking pose.

Vyr kicks the tree and several leaves start to fall. In rapid movements he cuts the leaves in half before they fall to the ground. Upon finishing, he points the katana at Mey and laughs sadistically.

Mey is not intimidated and spins his body on a sixpence, appearing with a martial arts outfit in the style of Bruce Lee. Instead of a katana he has a little ball and a tube of glue in his hands. But even still he forms an attacking stance.

Mey throws the little ball up in the air and quickly starts to run around the tree.

Mey stops moving, in time to catch the little ball before it touches the ground.

Vyr is left with his mouth wide open. We see that all the broken leaves are now glued, in muddled fashion, to the branches of the tree. Vyr lets the sword fall on the floor.

Lettering: “Know your enemies before facing them”
