

Vyr & Mey

“Mirror”

Episode 04

Version 02 – 6/12/2005

Vyr appears with a huge box, and when he opens it we see a bathroom assembled. In this bathroom there is only one large stick of dynamite, from which a mirror, a towel and a comb are hanging. Vyr gives an evil laugh with the comb in his hand. And then he leaves the box there.

Mey emerges, slowing down, and observes the bathroom with interest.

Vyr, who is behind the box, stretches his hand until he reaches the fuse of the dynamite. He lights the fuse with a match. When he pulls his hand back we see that Mey is now also standing next to the box. Vyr is taken by surprise.

Mey, with the comb in his hands, motions that he has no hair to comb. And so he returns it to Vyr.

Mey has an idea and pulls out a tie, already knotted, from behind his back, and spins it on his fingers to show it off.

Vyr is interested in the tie and wants it. Mey feigns ignorance and does not give the tie.

So Vyr, in a quick maneuver, puts a hat on Mey's head and grabs the tie in exchange. Mey smiles at the exchange.

Vyr runs to the mirror hanging from the stick of dynamite and admires himself with the tie around his neck. The fuse ends and the dynamite explodes, leaving Vyr singed/burned with smoke pouring out of his body.

Lettering: “Never worship your own image too much”